

Everyone's talking about Gael!

“Phoning you was the best decision we made on our trip . . . an investment that paid off a hundred-fold.”

—The McDermott's, Seabrook, NH

“We only had a few days in Monterey, but after your tour we knew exactly how to spend it. Your advice made our stay something incredible.”—T. Tolson, London, England

“We're still reliving our great aquarium tour. You made us feel like privileged guests . . . count on us for next year—I want to know more!”—The Stauffers, Los Gatos, CA

“We've been back a few weeks but we'll keep the beauty of the places you took us in our minds forever. You are so patient, knowledgeable and kind . . . we will never forget you.”—D. Ronning, Clinton, MD

“. . . we all thought your Point Lobos tour was the highlight of the weekend!”—Laspo family reunion, San Francisco, CA

“As usual, your presentations were the epitome of professionalism and downright fun!”—V. Stewart, Villa Cypress, Pebble Beach, CA

“You know your Steinbeck. Your blending of his work into the region's history was superb. . .”—R. McGill, Bethay Beach, Delaware

“Thanks for showing my visiting family around the Peninsula. I've lived here for 22 years and didn't know what I was missing until your tour! We were all totally impressed and can't thank you enough”—S. Glenn, Monterey, CA

“I could have listened to you for hours!”—R. Hoffer, President, California Groundwater Association

Gael Gallagher

Monterey Peninsula's premier tour guide, naturalist & historian

Extraordinary tours and impeccable visitor care since 1984

831/373-2813 ■ www.gaelgallagher.com

Monterey Bay Aquarium guide and instructor since 1989
Point Lobos guide since 1989 ■ National Steinbeck Center guide
National Wildlife Federation Conservation Summits instructor
First choice of corporate event planners

Individual, family and group tours—call for hourly, half-day and full-day rates (transportation and entrance fees not included).

Produced by Anne Muraski Publications, 831/375-7299; jellyfish photo by Randy Wilder, © 1997 Monterey Bay Aquarium Foundation; all other photos © Anne Muraski except for: sea otter, sea lion, butterflies, egret and ocean sunset. Printed on recycled paper with soy-based ink.

Don't miss out on the best of Monterey!

Wouldn't it be great to have a good friend who lived here?

Someone to let you in on all the local secrets? . . .

Gael Gallagher

Monterey Peninsula's premier tour guide, naturalist & historian

Hi,

I'm Gael

Gallagher, and I'd love to be your personal guide to the magnificent Monterey Peninsula.

Consider me your own private naturalist, historian, and trip advisor. Using your personal preferences, I can create a unique and extraordinary tour that's guaranteed to exceed your expectations.

Avoid the hassles of crowds, getting lost, feeling rushed and "trip anxiety" that you're not making the right choices. I can give you the inside information to make your entire trip more enjoyable: the hidden beaches, secluded mountain trails, perfect picnic spots, wildlife viewing areas, must-see attractions and best choices for day trips, dining, shopping and entertainment based on your tastes and time constraints.

After all, a great vacation isn't just sightseeing—it's having experiences that touch your heart and mind. These are "souvenirs" that last a lifetime.

Relax and enjoy . . . your Monterey visit is about to become everything you want it to be!

GAEL GALLAGHER

www.gaelgallagher.com ■ 831/373-2813

Imagine your perfect day!

*What do you envision?
Coastline walks, sea otter spotting, the wonders of the Monterey Bay Aquarium . . .
Let's make it happen!*

On-foot adventures

Spectacular encounters with the natural world—no matter what your physical condition. High powered spotting scope brings wildlife up-close and personal.

Monterey Bay Aquarium an insider's look

Cannery Row through Steinbeck's eyes

Point Lobos "the greatest meeting of land & sea"

Carmel-by-the-Sea discover village charm

Redwood Rendezvous walk amongst the giants

Spanish Bay dunes explore life on the edge

Specialty tours

Secluded beaches, redwood forests, harbor seal nurseries, butterfly sanctuaries . . .

17 Mile Drive/Peninsula Highlights

Big Sur unSURpassed scenic splendor

Steinbeck Country visit locales from his novels

Wine Country favorite tasting venues

These are just a few offerings.

Gael can customize and combine tours to accommodate your interests and schedule.

